Landon's First Taekwon-Do Lesson

This incredible story is about a brave, intelligent and athletic three-year-old boy; who like many others enjoy learning and trying new things. He took an interest in martial arts, and he shares his story about what life lessons he has learned during his first Taekwon-Do session.

This story focuses on fitness and self-defense; and the importance of respect and love to oneself, his parents and friends.

Landon would like to invite you to come along on his Taekwon-Do journey to black belt.

"Would you like to be my Taekwon-Do partner? See you in training my friend... "

This book is a great way to spark an interest in any sport. Awesome way to inspire and encourage your child to try new things.
